NGA taps 'change agent' for director of new Office of Ventures and Innovation

SAN ANTONIO – National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency Director Robert Cardillo announced the addition of David Bray to Team GEOINT during his keynote speech at the USGIF GEOINT Symposium here June 5.

Bray will lead the agency's new Office of Ventures and Innovation, said Cardillo.

"David is a leading change agent in government and technology, and we are excited to chart the future of our agency with him," said Cardillo. "As NGA's geospatial-intelligence mission evolves to meet today's emerging threats and challenges, David will help guide the technology, processes and public partnerships to keep pace with an ever changing world."

Bray is the former chief information officer for the Federal Communications Commission.
